Dear Year 11 Parents and Carers

Year 11 GCSE Exam Arrangements

I am writing to inform you about the arrangements for Year 11 pupils up until half term, once the GCSE exams begin.

From Tuesday, 5th May to Friday, 8th May, pupils will be in school as usual and attend normal timetabled lessons. The only exceptions will be for those pupils who study German, Latin and Drama as they will sit their exams in the school hall on the following dates:

Thursday, 7th May – German

Friday, 8th May – Latin (am) & Drama (pm)

The majority of GCSE exams begin the week beginning Monday, 11th May. The expectation is that pupils who have a morning exam, which is all pupils on most days, arrive to school in good time, ideally before 8.30am. Pupils should line up outside the school hall by 8.40am. If pupils do not have an afternoon exam, they will then be dismissed and allowed to study and revise at home. If pupils do have an afternoon exam, they will be expected to remain in school, go to break as normal at the end of their exam and will attend revision sessions during periods 3 and 4.

If pupils do not have a morning exam, they should arrive to school between 11am and 11.15am if they wish to attend revision sessions during periods 3 and 4. If they do not wish to attend the revision sessions, they should arrive in school between 12.50pm and 1.10pm. Pupils will not be admitted into the school during periods 3 and 4 (ie between 11.15am to 12.45pm). Revision sessions will be led by subject teachers prior to their exam, usually for that afternoon. Where subjects are running revision sessions before their morning exam, these will usually start at 8am and pupils will be informed directly by their subject teachers.

Scheduled revision sessions (periods 3 and 4):

Tuesday, 12 th May	Biology (for all pupils)
Wednesday, 13 th May	Computer Science
Thursday, 14 th May	German
Friday, 15 th May	Latin
Tuesday, 19 th May	Computer Science
Wednesday, 20 th May	RS
Thursday, 21 st May	Latin

Year 11 pupils will be able to purchase lunch from the school canteen if they wish at the earlier time of 12.45pm. They should then line up for their afternoon exam at 1.20pm, as the exam will begin at 1.30pm. Pupils who do not have an afternoon exam will be dismissed at 12.45pm to maximise their independent study and revision at home.

I will write to you again before half term with the specific arrangements for the exams taking place after half term.

Following the end of the GCSE exams, there will be a celebratory event in school (date to be confirmed) with light refreshments and an opportunity for pupils to sign shirts and receive their leavers hoodies.

Please note that all Year 11 pupils should wear full school uniform throughout the exam period and whenever they are in school.

We will be going through all of the above information with Year 11 pupils in an assembly on Tuesday (5th May) afternoon, after which they will be dismissed from school at approximately 3pm.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding with the exam arrangements.
I would like to wish Year 11 pupils the very best for their forthcoming GCSE exams.

Your sincerely

Mr Humphreys
