CHURCH OF ENGLAND HIGH SCHOOL

SIXTH FORM: Drama & Theatre

Drama and Theatre A Level Course Overview

The course combines practical performance, theatre-making and critical analysis. You will work as a performer and/or designer while developing a strong understanding of how theatre is created and communicated.

COMPONENT 1

40%

DEVISING

Create an original performance inspired by a stimulus and an influential theatre practitioner. Develop ideas through rehearsal, experimentation and reflection.

20%

TEXT IN PERFORMANCE

Perform extracts from a play, developing your interpretation through rehearsal and applying theatrical skills with control and purpose.

COMPONENT 3

40%

THEATRE MAKERS IN PRACTICE

Explore set texts, practitioners and live theatre. Apply your knowledge as a performer, designer and theatre-maker in the written examination.

What's great about Drama and Theatre at Tenison's?

It is a practical, creative and demanding subject where your ideas matter.

PRACTICAL

A significant part of the course is spent making theatre, rehearsing, experimenting and performing.

INDEPENDENT

Develop your own interpretations, performance ideas and theatrical voice, with individual guidance from your teacher.

COLLABORATIVE

Work closely with other students and learn how different performers, designers and practitioners shape a production.

ANALYTICAL

Learn to discuss theatre with precision, connecting practical choices to text, practitioner and audience.

Opportunities and Experiences

Drama at Tenison's is about experiencing theatre as well as studying it.

LIVE THEATRE

Regular opportunities to see professional theatre and use those experiences to deepen your understanding of performance and design.

INDUSTRY CONNECTIONS

Workshops, talks and opportunities involving theatre and performing-arts professionals.

NATIONAL THEATRE

Sixth-form students have taken part in the National Theatre Student Conference, connecting classroom learning with the wider theatre industry.

SCHOOL PRODUCTIONS

Take part in ambitious productions and develop experience in performance, rehearsal, backstage and production processes.

SHOWCASE YOUR WORK

Build confidence by sharing practical work with an audience and reflecting on the choices that made it successful.

What will Drama and Theatre give you?

CONFIDENCE

Present ideas clearly, perform with purpose and become comfortable communicating in front of others.

CREATIVITY

Generate original ideas, take creative risks and solve problems through practical experimentation.

CRITICAL THINKING

Analyse texts, productions and theatrical choices, then justify your own interpretations.

COMMUNICATION

Listen, respond, collaborate and communicate ideas with precision.

DISCIPLINE

Rehearse, refine, meet deadlines and respond constructively to feedback.

PORTFOLIO & EXPERIENCE

Develop practical and written evidence of your skills that can support applications for further study and creative opportunities.

Drama can support progression into theatre, acting, directing, design, teaching, media, performance and many other careers where communication and creative thinking matter.

MAKE THEATRE. UNDERSTAND THEATRE. FIND YOUR VOICE.
